

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Leave Indiana law alone. The program has been effective. Calls have been reduced from 10-15 per week to less than 1 per month. It works!